Kia Ora Plans for 6-State Tour

KIA ORA club of Brigham Young University will perform songs, dance, and rituals of the Maori people in six states on 's two week tour this summer.

The forty members participating in the shows will leave Provo by bus June 2 and will return June 14. An estimated 3500 miles will be traveled when the club performs in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Missouri and Kansas.

SPONSORED BY the Northern States Mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the tour show is designed to do missionary work for the Church through the talents and abilities of its members. A total of 10 programs will be presented in civic auditoriums and stake houses of the visited cities.

Roy Baumgart, Peoa, a ventriloquist; John Marlow, Blackfoot, Ida., soloist; Phyllis Nielson, Salt Lake City and Colleen Lawrence, Provo, soloists from the Student Program Bureau, will also be in the Kia Ora Club presentations.

THE SHOW centers around the story idea that four students from BYU are visiting in New Zealand While in the country, they come upon the natives of the land who perform in the various songs, dances and rituals of the Maori people.

Professor William Carr of the Political Science department is sponsor of Kia Ora club. Frank Horton of the English department and Sheldon Craven, assistant director of student housing, are advisors to the organization. Horton will preside as Master of Ceremonies over the performance while on tour.

One-third of the expenses of the trip will be raised by members of the club. The BYU Kia Ora Club is the only tourist group of its kind in the United States.

Singers Needed at Cal. Song Festival

All students interested in singing at the Hollywood Bowl in June for the Southern California Mutual Festival should meet in 240 Smith Building, 6:30 a.m., every day for the remainder of the week.

The singing will be directed by Crawford Gates. All those interested in participating in the event must learn the music and are required to attend the one-hour practices.

BYU Cowboy Elected Head Of Association

JAY WRIGHT, Brigham Young University student, recently elected vice president of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association from the Rocky Mountain region, has announced that there will be no Sunday rodeos in this region next year.

One of Wright's duties in this position is to sanction all rodeos scheduled in the Rocky Mountain region by member schools of the NIRA.

A vice president is chosen from each of four regions of the NIRA to supervise rodeoing activities and act much as a commissioner of this sport in his own region.

IN A STATEMENT to the Daily Universe Wright said he will not "okay" any Sunday rodeos in this region while he is in office.

He stated that it is the general policy of the NIRA to schedule its rodeos on Fridays and Saturdays, but that with a short season it has become a practice recently to schedule two shows on the same weekend, one Friday, Saturday, and Saturday-Sunday so the amateur cowboys can compete in both.

HE HOPES to remedy the situation by scheduling rodeos earlier in the spring, and if necessary, reducing the number of shows in this region during next year's regular rodeo season.

The freshman animal husbandry major was elected to his office last week at Laramie, Wyo. at an NIRA rodeo there. His home is Alamo, Nev. and he is a rider for the BrighamYoung University's rodeo team.

Netters, Golfers Split Contests In Logan Tests

by Tracy Wilson
Universe Sports Writer

Coach Fred (Buck) Dixon Monday announced that the regular season for tennis and golf was over with the Brigham Young University teams finishing Western Division play in second place in each sport.

Friday's action against Utah State Agricultural College wrapped the season up with a record of 4 wins 3 losses in tennis and five wins two losses in golf.

The Cougar golfers ran past the Montana Grizzlies in Missoula, Thursday, 14½ to 3½, but reversed Friday when they lost their second meet of the season to the Aggies, 11½ to 6½. The other meet with the Utags, the Cats only other defeat, ended with BYU on the short end of a 9½ to 8½ score.

John Geertsen bettered the top Bruin 3-0, and Sonny Nelson won 2-1. The team gained three points on the best ball to the tips none.

In the second team LeRoy Sickel outscored 3-0 to 3, while Phil Cannon dropped his opponent 2 to 1. Their best ball score was 2-1.

Utah Aggie Jerry Cromer clubbed Geertsen 3-0, and Jerry Dahlquist defeated Nelson 2-1. Max Fillmore, the only victorious Cat divoter, out pointed Lavell Hansen, the A&M top foursomer was taking the measure of Sickel, 3-0. The Cougars split with State taking the first one 3-0 and BYU copping the second 2½-½.

The Cougar netters meanwhile were edging Montana 7-2, and losing to Utah 6-3 in their close-fist meet of the season.

At Missoula the Cats took all doubles and four of the six single events.

Gregg Crandall walked over Gallagher in the top singles 6-4, 6-3; Ross Woodward had it a little rougher winning between 6-2 and 10-8; Judd Flowers stunned Montana's 6-2 and 7-5 as Kelley was downing Gary Madsen 6-4, 6-4.

The doubles of Crandall-Smoot defeated Kelley-Gallagher, 6-2, 6-2, while Madsen and Collins were outstroking Woolsten-Andrews, 6-4, 6-4. Woodward-Flowers defeated Hoeffer-Simmons in the final match of the day, 6-2, and 6-3.

At Logan things were a little rougher when Ivan Christensen got past Crandall 6-3, 6-3, Dow Woodward, USAC, defeated Smoot 6-3, and Ed Max Frampton, BYU clubbed Ken Woodward 8-1, 6-4. Don Harvey, USAC beat Collins 6-4, 6-1; and Ross Woodward, BYU, defeated Payne 6-2, 6-1 to even things up at three all.

Cougars Win 2 from Ags; Jones Hurls Win in Opener

by Howard Hill
Universe Sports Writer

LOGAN — Brigham Young University Baseball Coach Wayne Tucker finally found a winning recipe as the Cougars captured a double-header from Utah State, 12-4 and 11-9 in Logan Saturday afternoon.

Tucker mixed the pitching of Lynn Jones in the seventh inning opener with the hitting of Dave Lewis, Phil Oyler, and Paul Kitchen in the second game and then sweetened his recipe by adding the run-run innings, and one eight-run inning to finish his successful casserole.

IT WAS THE first start of the year for Jones as he set the Utags down with only three hits. However, the diminitive righthander gave up six walks, which proved costly.

The Farmers scored two runs in the second inning on two hits and a sacrifice. The five-foot seven-inch senior got into hot water in the final inning, but worked his way out of it.

He walked the first four men to face him, but retired the next three batters, the first of whom hit a sacrifice fly, as the Aggies scored two runs.

PAUL HAYNIE, Paul Kitchen, Tom Steinke, and Dave Lewis were the hitting stars for the Cougars in the first game. Kitchen got three hits and drove in three runs. Haynie and Steinke each collected two hits, and Haynie drove in two runs. Lewis only got one hit, but his bingo drove in two Cat runs.

The Brighams had their two five-run innings in the first game. Wayne Tucker's men pushed across five tallies in the third frame, one in the fourth, five more in the sixth inning, and scored one more in the seventh inning.

RITCHEY, Lewis, and Oyler sparked the BYU offensive attack in the nine-inning nightcap.

However, the Cougars had to come from behind in the second game. The Utags jumped off to a first inning, 2-0 lead. In the third the Farmers scored two more runs. The Cats got back on the scoreboard in their half of the fourth inning, but the Aggies came right back with two runs in their half of the fourth inning.

BOTH BYU and Utah State scored one run in the fifth inning, which made the score 7-5 in favor of the Logan men.

Then like lightning, the Cougars scored eight runs in a sixth inning to put the game on ice. During the storm 11 Brighamtan came to bat and the big blows of the inning were back-to-back home runs by Dick Lewis and Oyler.

BENNY MADSEN started on the hill for the Cougars, but only lasted three and one-third innings. Haymond, who relieved him in the Cats big sixth inning for a pinch hitter, pitched the sixth inning. However, Haymond was credited with the win while he was still hitting for the pitcher when the Cats got the lead in the sixth inning.

Colorado A&M Wins Honors at Western Days Rodeo; Cats 2nd

RECORD BREAKERS—Looking pretty tired after their record setting mile relay at the Western Division meet last Saturday is the Brigham Young University mile relay quartet. The team, Dick Heywood, O. Anderson, Jim Crittenden, and Arlyn Finkinson toured the four lapper in 3:17.6 for a new Skyline Conference record. (Photo by Jack Smith)

COLORADO A&M cowboys walked away with the top prize in the annual Western Week Rodeo before a large crowd at the Pleasant Grove rodeo grounds Friday and Saturday. The Ram punchers accumulated a record total of 600 while Brigham Young University took second place with a creditable 536.

Montana State was third with 240, Idaho State made 87 points and Utah State had 72.

BUD CLEMENTS of Colorado A&M was named "All-around Cowboy" after totaling 280 points for his team. He was awarded a saddle by the BYU Rodeo Club for his efforts.

Runnerup for the "All-around Cowboy" title was Dick Hatch, BYU team captain. He made 205 points.

THE SINGLE first place for the Cougar cowboys was taken by veteran Cheral Jarvis in the calf-roping event.

Clements won firsts in steer wrestling at Moon-roping, and saddle bronc riding. He won blue ribbons in every event he entered.

Jones took second place honors in steer wrestling, and ribbon roping.

Pat Philpot, Colorado A&M, won the girls barrel race with Neta Flake, BYU, in second place in this event.

BYU ENTERED this intercollegiate contest while standing in first place in the Rocky Mountain region of the National Inter-collegiate Rodeo Association Colorado A&M was several hundred points behind in the race for the regional crown. The marauders from the A&M team defeated the Cougars was not enough to take the lead from the Cats; however A&M entered another crew in a rodeo at Chadron State Teachers College, at Chadron, Neb., the same week end. The results of that show have not been made known to the BYU team as of yet. Colorado A&M, like other schools in the region is allowed to total the points earned in any five rodeos during a season If the total score earned by the Coloradoans at Nebraska was nearly as impressive as the Pleasant Grove performance they easily have passed the Brigham Young wranglers in the regional race

BYU and Colorado A&M will meet again next weekend at Idaho State College at Pocatello. This should be a fight to the finish as it will be the last meet of the year for both schools and the regional race is now limited to these two teams.
